DISCUSSION, CONSIDERATION AND ACTION REGARDING WATER DEPARTMENT METER READING, BILLING, STAFFING, AND EQUIPMENT.

Clint Davis, City Manager, addressed the council regarding incorrect water meter readings. He stated that the employee had not been reading the readings correctly therefore not that they have been read, there are several that are very large. Some customers have a credit balance also. He told the council that the employee had been terminated. He would like to have an independent company come read and audit the water meters. He is also looking into radio read water meters. Council advised staff to take every case into consideration and work with all customers who have an excessive bill due to this mistake.
